

Aiss Technologies Ltd. is looking for a new colleague, for the IT project manager position in order to effectively serve international clients.

Tasks:

- Full management of the products developed by the company's and customer-level service customization
- Allocation of internal resources (development, design, database)
- Cost Management
- Preparation of project documentation
- Participation in the development of new products and solutions
- Create management reports
- Keep in touch with the clients

Requirements:

- superlative IT education
- relevant, minimum 3 years experience in IT / Online Project Management
- Knowledge of web / software development up to date IT knowledge
- Fluent professional English language
- Driving license "B"

Advantage:

- Knowledge of retail and banking / insurance sector
- German language knowledge
- Knowledge of database-driven systems

We offer:

- Challenging work and outstanding career development
- Competitive compensation package
- Participation in international projects
- Friendly climate, modern ambience

Location of work:

- Budapest

If you are interested in the job and meet the requirements, please send your extended professional references, and your CV (with photo) to the office@aiss.hu e-mail address.